VOL. XI. PORTLAND, OREGON, MONDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1871. NO. 70.

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO MAY 27.

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

Conflagrations in Paris Continue.

NEW YORK, May 27.—A dispatch dated St. Denis, Thursday night, says: Terrible conflagrations are seen rising to a great height and illuminating the country. Human aid is valueless; the only hope is that the night may remain calm. The London Fire Brigade is not yet in Paris.

The Prussians have fired upon and driven back insurgents flying to Bercilliers.

Another Insurgent Stronghold Taken—Fighting Continues.

VERSAILLES, May 26, Night.—Vinoy has captured the Place Belleville, which was defended by 11,000. The fighting was severe. The Versaillists have captured and bridged a portion of the Buttes Chaumont. They are advancing on Belleville, whence petroleum bombs are still thrown all over Paris.

Le Pic informed the Assembly that the insurgents hold Charonne District, Buttes of Chaumont, La Chapelle, Villette, Menilmontant and Belleville. The insurrection will end on Saturday. Some of the hostages were shot. Troops continue to arrest numbers of women carrying petroleum bottles. The insurgents will probably be completely surrounded to-night in Rue Menilmontant.

There is a great glare on the horizon. St. Martin, Suresnes and the Chatelet Theatres have been burned.

Cannon and twenty-two red flags were captured at Belleville.

The court martial commences its sittings on Monday.

There is a rumor that Delescluse and Pyatt have been shot.

The insurgents imprisoned in the docks at Hatchey attempted an uprising. Several were shot.

Favre, in a dispatch to Representatives abroad, says: The acts of the insurgents are criminal, not political. He requests neighboring nations to extradite Red refugees. Spain has already proposed to do so.

ST. DENIS, May 26.—All is quiet. The foreign firemen have entered, and the conflagrations are decreasing. The workshops of the Versailles railway are burned.

The insurgents have been dislodged at Charonne, and surrounded at Belleville and Menilmontant.

PARIS, May 27.—Fighting to the east and north was less violent. A Versailles battery on the Rue Flanders bombards the Reds' works at Chaumont. The insurgents fire recklessly. The Prussians imprison escaping insurgents.

Dispatches via London—Horrible Scenes in Paris—50,000 Corpses in Houses and Cellars.

LONDON, May 27.—A dispatch from La Issy says the Germans state that the Archbishop and priests not found are supposed to be shot.

It is calculated that upwards of 50,000 corpses are in the houses and cellars—many of them are women and children. It is said that the people are perfectly furious at the constant execution.

The destruction of property is excessive. A part of Paris is destroyed.

The Daily News says a Carlist movement is imminent in Spain. Don Carlos is at Bayonne. There is great agitation in Andalusia and Catalonia.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Dispatches from our Minister at Paris.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The following telegram was received this evening from Minister Washburn, dated Paris, to-day: There is fighting in remote parts of the city. New fires are breaking out. Americans and their property all safe.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—A telegram received this morning by the Secretary of State says Minister Washburn wishes notice given that all Americans and their property, in Paris, were safe at 7 o'clock last evening.

The following telegram was received at the State Department at 12:30 P. M., from Versailles, to the Hon. Hamilton Fish: "The insurgents still hold a small part of the city. Some new fires have occurred. The fate of the Archbishop is uncertain. Signed, Washburne."

Proceedings in the Senate.

It is understood that the subject discussed at the executive session, to-day, was in some way controlled by the treaty of Washington, but the precise form of the proposition is not ascertained. It is certain, however, that it elicited a long and earnest debate which has not terminated. A number of Senators have gone home, and the Senate late this afternoon was hardly able to preserve a quorum. In case there be none to-morrow, measures will be required to secure attendance by sending the Sergeant-at-Arms for Senators within convenient reach. The Senate will meet at 12 to morrow. It is not certain when it will adjourn sine die.

The Senate has ratified the additional treaty between the United States and Great Britain, defining more clearly the provisions of the naturalization treaty.

Assistant Secretary Cowan has returned to Washington and assumed his official duties.

It is understood that a number of the Board of Indian Commissioners will be sent to feed the starving Apaches in Arizona as soon as they can be brought in upon reservations.

EASTERN STATES.

Prize Fighters Sentenced.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Judge Dowling to-day sentenced the prize fighters, Collins and Edwards, to the penitentiary for one year, and to pay a fine of $1,000—the sentence to continue, in default of fine, for another year. The umpire, Thomas McLaughlin, was arrested at night. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $500.

South Carolina Ku Klux.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, arrived here yesterday, and held a long interview with President Grant, this morning, in which he said there was no necessity for putting the State under martial law, and that there was a good state of feeling among the better class of citizens to put down Ku Klux organizations.

Convention of Insurance Officers.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The National Convention of State Insurance Officers was in session to-day. A report was read arguing the enactment of such laws as would secure safety to the insured, with the least inconvenience to companies. It dwelt upon the fact that fire companies were liable to be broken up by disasters of a single day, while life companies were not subject to such calamities. For this reason the committee confined all their attention to the subject of insurance against fire. It was urged that public safety required that the companies should not transact business in the State when their funds were locked up in other States. Various other resolutions were offered for the consideration of the convention.

Another Coal Mine Horror.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—A Pittston dispatch dated 2 P. M., says the shaft of one mine is on fire, and all the miners are inside; none can escape.

Municipal Elections in Virginia.

RICHMOND, May 26.—The city election returns have been canvassed. The conservatives carried the city by 170 majority, and elected 26 out of 30 Councilmen. Two of the conservative Councilmen were voted for also by Republicans.

In Lynchburg the conservatives carried the city.

In Norfolk the conservatives carried the Council. Twenty townships heard from show material political changes.

WEST INDIES.

Outrage at Jamaica.

KINGSTON, May 26.—The British Consul at Maracaibo has just arrived here, bringing the intelligence that a wealthy Englishman, brother of the American Consul at that place, has been arrested, placed in irons, and thrown into prison, and that it is believed he will be shot. The Government has refused the application of both the British and American Consuls for an interview with the prisoner. The British Consul declares that the arrest is unwarranted by any acts committed by the prisoner.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—C. G. Mathews, convicted of selling Havana lottery tickets, was to day fined $5 by Judge Sawyer, who remarked that selling lottery tickets was not in itself a crime, but only made so by law.

Burglary by boys is becoming an every day occurrence in San Francisco. Two were arrested last night for entering houses and carrying off money, showing the greatest skill in the work.

Owing to the rowdy demonstration at the big tent, where the camp meetings are being held, 50 special policemen have been detailed to keep order.

Manuel Obi was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with grand larceny, sworn out by a Chinaman. It is uncertain whether Judge Sawyer will follow the example of his namesake, the Justice, and admit Chinese testimony, or rest on the decision of the Supreme Court, and take his chances of arrest under the Ku Klux bill.

At the trot for $1,000 a side at Pacific Track to-day, Ajax, May Fly, Fanny Fern, formerly called Dont Bodder Me, Baltimore Belle and Lady Sigal started. The first heat was won by Ajax—time 2:37½; the second, third and fourth heats were won by May Fly—time 2:37½, 2:37½, 2:38.

Madam Agatha States, the California prima donna, now in New York, will make a short visit to San Francisco soon, accompanied by an Italian company. Nilsson has definitely abandoned her contemplated trip to California.

There were forty-nine deaths in the city this week.

Dispatch from Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—The ex-soldiers and sailors of the Union army held an informal meeting here last evening, and adjourned until June 3d. The principal objects of the meeting were to protect and look after their rights to public lands donated by Congress, and to investigate practicability of forming a soldiers' colony on the Gila river.

One of the principal witnesses for the people, in the case of Allanson Gardner, indicted for murder, is dangerously ill, and his death before the trial will probably insure the acquittal of the accused. The case was continued for the term in the District Court.

OREGON.

Albany is making great progress in street improvements.

The Dalles Mountaineer will be enlarged next week to meet the demands of an increasing business.

E. K. Chandler, of McMinnville, was one of the class graduating at the Baptist Theological Seminary of Chicago, on the 17th inst.

Mr. A. Myers, who has gone East to make arrangements for the machinery for the new manufacturing enterprise at Salem, will bring back with him a large number of mechanics.

From the Corvallis Gazette: In a few days Mr. Geo. Mercer starts with a party of men to survey the Klamath Lake country. The reservation is to be divided up in twenty-acre lots. Will be absent four or five months.

Chinese house servants at Eugene have struck for higher wages. Which proves that Chinese are not more in favor of "cheap labor" than white men are, and annihilates another "central principle of the Democratic party."

A few days ago J. A. Miller, one of the proprietors of the Benton Democrat, disappeared. He started, ostensibly, for Albany, to procure a different heading for the paper. It is currently reported that he collected various sums on subscription and advertising, all of which also mysteriously disappeared. So says the Corvallis Gazette.

The fourteenth annual session of the Central Baptist Association will convene in the First French Prairie Church, at Waconda, Marion county, on Thursday, June 8th, at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. J. W. Short will preach the introductory sermon; Dr. Hill, alternate. The Executive Board of the Baptist State Convention will meet at the same place on Friday, June 9th.

From the Statesman we get the following account of buildings in progress at Salem: The new United Presbyterian Church, on High street, is nearly ready to be enclosed. The large Methodist Church, corner of State and Church streets, will be commenced as soon as the plans and specifications are received from the hands of the architect. The Cumberland Presbyterian Society have already subscribed upwards of $3,000 towards their contemplated edifice. The new penitentiary is being rapidly pushed forward. Two new brick stores on State street are to be erected by Mr. G. W. Gray during the summer, and a large number of private dwellings are already either under contract or soon will be.

From the Statesman: On May 10th we published a recipe sent us by Mr. Philemon Morris, of Sublimity, who had been experimenting how to get rid of the caterpillars that were then destroying his orchards. At the same time he requested that if any fruit grower or other person had any better means of destroying them to make it known through the press. Both Col. Thomas H. Cann and H. M. Thatcher, yesterday gave us the following as a certain way to get rid of these destructives: Make a torch of rags or cotton waste, and saturate fully with kerosene or Benzine, and hold or plant under the nest; the torch, if properly made, will last some time, and the smoke is sure death to them. Those having orchards should, for the next few weeks, watch them closely. Reports from California and Utah say they are ruining whole orchards.

THE TERRITORIES.

A large number of settlers are flocking into the Silver Lake country, some fifteen miles back of Kalama.

The Territorial Dispatch is the name of a new paper started at Seattle. It is a new growth from the "plant" of the now defunct Alaska Times. Hall & Wilson are proprietors.

The Puget Sound Indians have some queer laws about increasing the population. The Indian who is guilty of being the father of twins is driven into the woods to abide alone for three months. Triplets condemn a man to perpetual bushwhacking.

A man named August Shurrman while attempting to cross Lewis river, opposite St. Helens the other day, fell in, and when rescued by a companion life seemed to be extinct. By vigorous efforts, however, he was restored, and has since taken up a homestead.

A Puget Sound paper says: Owing to the meager donation of land which had been subscribed and offered to the railroad company for a branch road to Olympia, Gen. Sprague is reported to have remarked that "the people there would not stand the ghost of a chance, unless they made a better offer than they had."

The Boston Post, the leading Democratic paper of New England, says: "The Joint High Commission has good reason to be satisfied with the results of its efforts to compose the protracted disputes between the two great English-speaking nations of the globe. The idea of such a Commission was first proposed in these columns, and the President and Cabinet evidently acted on the suggestion without loss of time. Doubtless the troubles in Europe quickened the progress of the work. It will ever remain a source of profound satisfaction, that the project advanced at the critical moment by the Post, and urged upon the attention of the Government, was at once adopted and carried out to the pacification of the feelings and the harmonizing of the interests of two great peoples." So it appears that Democrats are so pleased with the treaty that they claim to have originated it.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, May 27.—Picard informed the Assembly that Cissey occupies the whole left bank of the Seine.

Vinoy and Douay after capturing Place de la Bastille, occupied Fauburg St. Antone and Paris Barrier du Froie.

Chinchart and L'Admiralt have advanced to the front of the height of Buttes Chaumont, and will to-morrow with 20,000 men occupy the last refuge of the monstrous insurrection.

ANNEVILLIERS, May 27.—The tri-color floats over LaVilletti. The insurrection is expiring.

LONDON, May 27.—The London fire brigade has entered Paris.

VERSAILLES, May 27, Evening.—A circular from Thiers details operations of the troops, praises them for the courage displayed. They will attack the last refuge of the insurgents at the heights of Belleville on Sunday morning. Thiers accuses the insurgents of having collected a large quantity of poisonous liquids for use against the Government troops.

Gen. Leroy, one of the commanders of Versailles troops was killed in action to-day.

EUROPE.

LONDON, May 27.—The Grand Duke Alexander second son of the Czar of Russia, arrived in London to-day.

MADRID, May 27.—Ministers have decided to stop all French refugees at the frontier and deliver them to the Versailles authorities.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—In the Senate the discussion was continued by Bayard in favor of Wilson's resolution, and Edmunds and Howe in opposition, until 5 P. M., when a vote was taken on Nye's amendment, which was rejected. The Senate agreed to Wilson's resolution to discharge White and Ramsdell from custody at conclusion of the session—yeas, 23; nays, 13.

Conklin at 5:20 moved a resolution that the Senate adjourn sine die at 5:30 to day. Thurman opposed the resolution with the object of having the injunction of secrecy on the proceedings of the executive session on the treaty removed, when the time fixed by Conklin's resolution arrived, and 26 minutes to 6 o'clock the Senate adjourned, leaving five nominations enacted upon. Three treaties go over till the next session, viz: Postal treaty with Equador, treaty of commerce with Italy, and treaty with Mexico extending the time for the Commissioners for the settlement of claims.

Dr. Bliss reports Colfax better and will be able to start for home by Thursday next.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The treaty of Washington, sent from here yesterday to New York, will go from there by the Inman Line to-morrow, for the purpose of exchanging ratifications. Minister Schenck will receive it three or four days after his arrival in England, and the exchange of ratifications will be completed in three or four weeks. The process of the exchanging of ratifications seems still understood that two copies of the treaty were signed by the Commissioners, one of which was sent at once to London, and one placed before the Senate by the President. The Senate having consented to the treaty, the President and Secretary of State attach their signatures to the copy, and when Minister Schenck receives it, he will exchange this copy having the signature of the President for the other copy which will be signed by the Queen. When the exchanged copy has been received it will be promulgated by the President in a proclamation, and its provisions will then be fully in force.

MASTERN STATES.

Further Particulars of the Burning Coal Mine.

PITTSTON, May 27.—West Pittston shaft is still burning. There is only one outlet, and part of the men have been saved. Fire engines are playing on the rains, which are so hot that no one will be able to approach them before morning. A dog has just been sent down the shaft of the mine and was brought up alive, which fact encourages the belief that all the men may yet be saved. It has been ascertained that there are thirty-seven still in the mine. Every exertion is being made, and it is thought the bottom of the shaft will be reached by midnight. Great hopes are entertained of the men's safety and the wildest excitement prevails throughout the whole valley.

LATEST.—Communication has at last been had with the men in the mines; it is known that all of them are alive, though none have reached the surface.

Verdict in Favor of a Telegraph Company.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The Court of Claims at Washington has decided the case of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Co. against the United States Government, in favor of the plaintiff, for the full amount claimed for messages sent during ex-Secretary Seward's administration of the State Department.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Over 3,000 persons witnessed the Caledonian games at Woodward's Gardens, to-day.

An excursion around the bay on the steamer George McPherson was given to-day in honor of the United States officials now here.

In the game for the champion bat, to-day, the Wideawakes beat their challengers, the Atlantics, by 61 to 6.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The rite of confirmation was administered to a large number of young girls at St. Mary's Cathedral to-day.

There was a large attendance at love feast in the camp meeting tent this morning. Short addresses were made by a large number of persons, including several colored people, and the proceedings were viewed with great interest by a numerous audience of unbelieving outsiders.

It commenced raining lightly at half past ten this morning, and continued until nearly 3 P. M. About 1 o'clock one of the heaviest showers of the season fell. It has now cleared up and is cold.

Every effort is being made to ensure an imposing display at the ceremony of the decoration of the Union soldiers' graves to-morrow.

The schooner H. M. Hutchinson, sent out to the Antarctic ocean on a sealing voyage by Hutchinson, Kohl & Co., returning via Cape Horn, arrived this evening. The manifest does not indicate a success.

This morning, at the Brannan street house, Lawrence Sherlock charged Thomas Mellody, a fellow Australian, with following his wife too affectionately. From words they came to blows, and in the melee a pistol was drawn and Mellody received a bullet in the temple, a part of which glanced off on the skull, and the remainder entered the brain, the wound having been probed three inches without finding it. Both parties were taken to the calaboose. Mellody was able to walk, but kept talking like a man partially insane; his wound is probably fatal. Sherlock says Mellody had a pistol and shot himself with it in the struggle.

Some Pennsylvania Democrats suggest the following startling ticket for their party's acceptance in the next campaign: Gen. Sherman for President, Gov. Geary for Vice-President, and Carl Schurz for Secretary of State, or anything else he wants.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1871.

A New Auxiliary to Commerce.

Some time ago we gave an account of a new scheme or plan, whereby a process of lifting vessels over bars and shoals in rivers and harbors is substituted for the expensive system of dredging, which has long been followed and with unsatisfactory results. Repeated experiments in "ship lifting" at harbors along the Atlantic coast are proving beyond question the perfect feasibility of the new method. The Government has been accustomed to make large appropriations every year for clearing obstructions at ports on the Atlantic, and deepening channels at the months of rivers and harbors. The month of the Mississippi river has always been difficult to keep open so that large vessels could safely enter, and immense sums of money have been expended there by the Government. Every year a vast appropriation is drawn into that vortex. Under an act of Congress several vessels have been built recently to operate there all the time for the purpose of removing obstructions and keeping the channel open to commerce. But even this does not produce satisfactory results. St. Louis is deeply interested in the commerce of the Mississippi, and is now making an effort to establish lines of vessels to run from her wharves direct to New York and foreign ports. The great difficulty in the way is the bars at the mouth of the river. Deeming all attempts to keep the channel open by dredging unsatisfactory and unproductive of desired results, the Merchants' Exchange and the Board of Trade of St. Louis have passed joint resolutions to be sent to the Missouri delegation in Congress and to other Western Senators and Representatives, protesting against any further expenditure of money at the mouth of the Mississippi on the old plan of operations, and asking appropriations for bringing into use at that place the plan for raising by floating docks and conveying vessels over the bar, which has proven so successful at Savannah and other ports on the Atlantic coast, as well as in many harbors in Europe. They express a belief that this will be a sure and speedy way of effecting the purpose, and one that can be maintained more cheaply than any that has yet been tried.

They who assert that the Columbia river is unfitted to be a channel for a great commerce may learn something from the case of the Mississippi. At the mouth of the Columbia river neither dredging nor lightering nor this new appliance for ship-lifting is needed. Large vessels enter and depart with heavy cargoes. The channel is always open, and the entrance is far more easy and safe than at the mouth of the Mississippi. The comparison between the two rivers in this respect is mainly in favor of the Columbia. Yet see what a prodigious commerce floats on the Mississippi and finds an outlet over the shoals at its mouth, which must be dredged continually in order to make commerce at all practicable. The Columbia river offers far better facilities, and the commerce of the Mississippi is what, one day, will be witnessed here.

Another word may be added in regard to the new plan for raising vessels over shoals and bars. Though nothing of the sort is needed at the mouth of the Columbia river, the new invention may become of great use in enabling large vessels to ascend and descend the Columbia and Willamet to and from Portland. This city has expended a good deal of money in dredging the bar below, and the General Government has expended and is preparing to expend more. It is not improbable that the new method of ship lifting may be generally introduced, and in time entirely supersede the old system of dredging upon our rivers.

A Striking Item.

The following exhibit of native and foreign born population of the States named teaches a remarkable lesson:

	Native.	Foreign.
Wisconsin	690,320	304,345
Minnesota	428,058	277,249
Iowa	987,650	294,047
Total	2,134,053	848,221
Virginia	1,211,883	13,578
Georgia	1,184,193	11,145
North Carolina	1,098,113	8,022
Total	3,493,089	27,745

This is the exhibit of the census of 1870. There is no effect without cause; and to the existence of every, that monster which the Democracy of the United States sought to perpetuate the fact is due that so few persons of foreign birth are to be found in the Southern States. The great and free northwest has obtained the bulk of the industrious population from Europe which has sought homes in our country. Into Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas and Nebraska they have poured, making those States great and prosperous and augmenting their Republican majorities. A contemporary says of the above exhibit: "The elements which build up States and appreciate values are capital and labor. Wherever labor is respected, capital will be encouraged to go. In the States of the North and Northwest, where order, security and equal rights exist for all, labor from all quarters of Europe is constantly seeking homes, and capital is on the alert for investment. Hence, notwithstanding the rigor of their winter climate—and other drawbacks and disadvantages—the immense strides which those States have made in population, wealth and power, while in spite of the natural advantages of the States comprised in the second table—their balmy climate, their cheap lands and remarkable facilities for transportation, they have retrogressed almost in the ratio of the advance of the others."

Last year Gov. Holden of North Carolina took vigorous measures to suppress the Ku Klux of that State. His efforts were only partially successful and the Ku Klux by terrorizing the State succeeded in electing a majority of the Legislature. This body at once set about impeaching Gov. Holden for his action against the Ku Klux, and in a short time removed him from office. This made T. R. Caldwell Governor, to succeed Holden. And now Gov. Caldwell comes out with a proclamation against the Ku Klux, declaring that "armed bands of disguised men have been and still are prowling about in some of the counties of the State and in the night time committing outrages of the most atrocious character upon weak and defenceless citizens, white and colored, old and young, male and female; that the authorities have been unable to arrest and bring to justice the perpetrators of these fiendish and inhuman outrages, and that this horrid state of affairs must be brought to an end." The proclamation closes thus: "I notify all offenders that if this appeal is not heeded, and if they persist in acting all law and decency at defiance, and will have no mercy upon their helpless victims, the day may not be distant when they themselves will entreat for mercy in vain." We commend this proclamation to the Oregon Herald. Of course there are no Ku Klux! The whole thing is a "Radical" hoax.

By the time a Portland School Director, of those pubs conduct a good deal has been said lately, shall have finished reading a certain interview communication that appears in our columns to-day, he will doubtless be convinced that the publication of his "card" a few days ago was an unfortunate occurrence. Silence was decidedly his safest refuge. He gets a terrible handling in this communication, and the public will be apt to think that it is fully deserved.

The Eugene Guard seconds the Albany Democrat's opposition to the Vallandigham platform. It says: "Such a mixing up of Radical unconstitutional usurpations and Democratic strict construction beats the hell-broth of the witches in Macbeth all hollow." The Guard closes with declaring that Vallandigham and his followers ought to go over to the "Radical party" at once. The Herald hasn't yet favored its party with its views on this interesting subject.

The Herald urges its party to put a "straight-out Democratic ticket in the field" for the city election. That suits us. Republicans will, of course, do likewise.

THE ELLIOTT-HOLLADAY CONTROVERSY.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I had always supposed that the proper place to try a lawsuit was in a court and not in the newspapers,—and my experience has taught me that it is only where a suitor is afraid to submit his cause to a court on its true merits, that he seeks by the publication of ex parte affidavits to influence public opinion, thereby hoping, indirectly, to bring an improper influence to bear on the mind of the court. In the controversy now pending in the courts of this State between Simon G Elliott and Ben Holladay this would seem to be the position and purpose of Mr. Elliott, judging from the fact that in Saturday's Herald he caused to be published an ex parte affidavit, made by himself, in the case now pending before J. C Moreland, Esq., referee. If such is not Mr. Elliott's purpose, and if he has his attorneys have confidence in his case on its merits, then I should be glad to know for what purpose he surreptitiously caused an ex parte affidavit to be copied from the records of a Court, when a cause is on trial before that Court, and that, too, after he had made application for the original, which had been refused him for such purpose by the referee, and causes the same to be published in the morning paper?

As Mr. Elliott, however, and doubtless through the advice of his counsel, has seen proper to take this step, and as the inference sought to be conveyed, is that the alleged conduct of Mr. Holladay was to prevent him, Elliott, from having a fair trial in the case pending before the referee, and from the further fact that the Herald has seen proper to express the opinion that "Elliott is acting as defendant in a case in this State by a coup de main of Mr. Holladay, while he, Elliott, is plaintiff in California," I have deemed it no more than proper to present a brief statement of the facts, as they appear of record. The suit now pending before Mr. Moreland as referee, was commenced on the 4th day of November, 1869. Mr. Elliott at that date was a citizen and resident of the State of Oregon, residing in the city of Portland, notwithstanding the averment in his ex parte affidavit under oath that "I was not a resident of the State of Oregon at the commencement of this action."

So far as this statement in the affidavit is concerned, it is simply false, as the contrary is a notorious fact. It is true, however, that to avoid the service of summons, Mr. Elliott kept himself concealed for some time, and finally left the State, sending his family in one direction and going himself in another. After leaving the State, his counsel, E. D. Shattuck and W. F. Trimble, appeared for him in the case referred to, and filed answer, in March, 1870. In July, 1870, the issues were fully made up, and the case, by consent of parties, referred to Mr. Moreland, as referee. Now Mr. Elliott charges in his affidavit that Mr. Holladay caused the steamer John L. Stephens to be delayed on her recent voyage to this city, as he says, "in order to prevent the arrival of myself and family at Portland, and to prevent me from obtaining a fair trial in this action."

Now as to whether or not the steamer was unusually delayed, or as to whether Mr. Holladay had anything to do with such delay, are questions which I shall leave Mr. Holladay and Mr. Elliott to settle for themselves; but as Mr. Holladay's attorney I desire to state what took place in the case by myself, and that, too, with the knowledge and consent and, I may say, at the instance of Mr. Holladay, in order that defendant, Elliott, and his new array of counsel might have an opportunity to be heard even after their day in Court had transpired, and after all of which it seems scarcely possible Mr. Holladay would have given his consent to—had he entertained any—delay in the steamer.

As I have stated, this cause was referred to Mr. Moreland in July, 1870, nearly one year ago. At that time and ever since Judge Shattuck and Trimble, two of the leading lawyers of this city, have appeared in that case as his attorneys of record, having made up the issues and participated in the proceedings. On the 25th day of November, 1870, the following stipulation was entered into between Mr. Elliott's said attorneys and myself:

STIPULATION.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Multnomah.

Ben Holladay, et al vs. S. G. Elliott, et al.

It is agreed that the law of Oregon limiting the time for taking depositions and introducing testimony in Chancery cases shall not apply to this case, but it is further agreed that either party shall have such time as he may require for such purpose, but not to exceed six months from this date

Portland, Oregon, Nov 23, 1870.

E. D. SHATTUCK, and
W. F. TRIMBLE,
Att'ys for Def't S. G. Elliott
MITCHELL & DOLPH,
Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

Filed Nov. 25, 1870.
C. W. PARRISH, Clerk.

According to this stipulation either party had until the evening of May 22d, 1871, to take any testimony they might choose in the case.

On Monday, the 22d day of May, having taken all the testimony on the part of the plaintiffs, I stated to the referee that, although the defendant Elliott had for six months failed to take any testimony, and although according to the stipulation on file the time for taking testimony had elapsed, yet, inasmuch as he was on his way here with attorneys from San Francisco, I desired that he would continue the case from day to day until the ship arrived; and I asked that the further hearing be continued until next day at 10 A. M. While the referee was entering the order of continuance, Judge Shattuck came in with an affidavit. I inquired what he desired to have done. He said that Mr. Elliott was on his way up, and he desired to have the cause continued until his arrival. I replied to him, "Judge, it is not necessary to make any affidavit, as I have already directed the referee to continue the case from day to day until the arrival of the ship." The Judge replied, "All right;" or something to that effect, and the case was, without the Judge reading his affidavit, continued by consent until Tuesday, with the fresh understanding and agreement between us that if the steamer was not then in it should be continued from day to day until the steamer did arrive Tuesday morning the steamer arrived; and at 10 A. M. Mr. Elliott, with his attorney Judge Shattuck, reinforced by Judge Page, of this city, with his bland smile and winning ways, accompanied also with the polished and facetious Felton, and the sedate but handsome Patterson, of the San Francisco bar, appeared on the scene of conflict. The time for taking testimony had expired, and none knew it better than this quaternion of professional giants, in whose united counsel was centred the combined legal acumen of the profession of the two great cities of the Northwest. They must have an extension of time, and they must have some reasons to incorporate in an affidavit for the purpose of getting an order to that effect. But they soon discovered that no such affidavit or application was necessary, as the counsel for the plaintiffs stated to them that he was perfectly willing to grant them all that week, five full days, and night to enable them to take all the testimony they might desire. This generosity upon the part of this monster plaintiff, Mr. Holladay, was something they did not expect; besides, if we accept this liberal offer, reasoned they, we will have no opportunity to get up an affidavit for publication, consequently they made a demand which they well know plaintiff's counsel could not in justice to his client, consent to. That was, that they have two days time to deliberate before they commenced taking testimony. This favor I declined to grant, but consented that they should have until one o'clock of that day to deliberate. At one o'clock all parties appeared and the famous affidavit of Mr. Elliott was then produced, on an application for forty eight hours to prepare for trial, and that, too, when the case had been on trial for months past. This application for time to prepare for trial the referee very properly overruled, stating that the defendant must proceed with his testimony, the referee further stating that he would give defendants in addition to the time tendered them by plaintiff's counsel until the 30th inst., to close their testimony. What I have here stated with reference to a voluntary extension of the time both before the arrival of the steamer and after its arrival, are matters of record, well known to the defendant Elliott and his counsel, and I submit that it is a record scarcely consistent with the absurd theory advanced in Mr. Elliott's affidavit, that "the steamer was delayed in order to prevent him and his attorneys from getting here, and from obtaining a fair trial." Mr. Elliott also complains in his affidavit that he was detained in California in taking Mr. Holladay's deposition in the case there. It is a fact which Mr Elliott will scarcely deny, and most certainly the San Francisco attorneys will not, that they were appealed to by Mr. Holladay's attorneys in that city to postpone the taking of that deposition until the latter part of the summer, when it would be more convenient for Mr. Holladay to be there. And it is equally true that he was kept on the witness stand for over two mortal weeks by the defendant himself and his attorneys, when the evidence obtained might have been taken in one half of the time, had reputation in the manner of examination been avoided. Now a word as to the unfairness that has been practiced in this controversy since its inception, and as to the party properly chargeable with that unfairness, in the manner of instituting suit. All the transactions which have given rise to these controversies originated and transpired in Oregon, and are very properly triable in one suit. Such an one is that commenced by Holladay and Emmett in the State courts of this State, and which is now pending before the referee. This is the only suit ever commenced by Mr. Holladay against Mr. Elliott, and in that suit Mr. Elliott can very properly and adjudicated. But what does Mr. Elliott do? He leaves Oregon, and through his attorneys brings suit against Mr. Holladay in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon. This suit Mr. Holladay defended, and Mr. Elliott went out of court on the question of jurisdiction. Elliott then commenced another suit in the State court, before Judge Upton. This suit is still pending. He then went to New York and commenced suit there for the same cause. That suit is also still pending. He then proceeded to San Francisco and there commenced another suit substantially similar to the one pending here. He next proceeded to the District of Columbia, and there began a suit to obtain a temporary injunction to restrain the issuing of patents for the Congressional land grant which the Secretary of the Interior regarded in about the same light that the comet did the Pope's bull. He now comes back to Oregon, and makes a pour month that he has not been able to pay his counsel to defend the case pending here, and to cap the climax of absurdity, and make the evidence conclusive as to his intention to harass and vex with innumerable and useless proceedings, he on Saturday commences a new suit in the United States Circuit Court for the District of Oregon for substantially the same cause. And as a further aggravation, in which last it seems to me his attorneys are scarcely excusable, a notice is served on Mr Emmett, requiring him to appear in said United States Court to day for the purpose of having his testimony taken, the proposition being in effect to proceed with the testimony in the two cases in different Courts at the same time, the object evidently being to force Mr. Holladay to bring into one of the Courts new counsel who is not familiar with the history of the controversy.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN

OF THE

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Secured by First Mortgage on Railroad and Land Grant.

COLD PAYMENT.

BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYABLE in American Gold Coin, at the office of Jay Cooke & Co., New York City—the Principal at the end of 30 Years, and the Interest (at the rate of seven and three-tenth per cent. per annum) half yearly, first of January and July.

THE RATE OF INTEREST

Is a most convenient as well as profitable one, being seven dollars and thirty cents each year on every hundred dollars, or on the various denominations of bonds as follows

Two cents per day on each	$100 bond
Ten " " " "	500 "
Twenty cents per day on each	1,000 "
One dollar " " " "	5,000 "
Two dollars " " " "	10,000 "

BONDS RECEIVABLE FOR LANDS.

By the terms of the mortgage the 7 30 bonds of the Company are always receivable, at par and accrued interest, in payment for the Company's lands at their lowest graded prices; and by the arrangement between the Trustees and the Directors of the Company, in all cash purchases of land from the Railroad, 10 per cent discount will be made from the purchase price whenever the Company's first mortgage bonds are offered in payment. In other words, Northern Pacific 7-30's are, if desired, at all times convertible, at 1.10, into real estate at lowest cash prices.

These Bonds, principal and interest payable in American gold coin, are now offered for sale at par and accrued interest in Currency, thus yielding at the present rate of premium on gold, over eight per cent. gold on amount of gold investment.

It will be noticed that these Bonds may be used at the holders option as a LAND WARRANT, for the purpose of locating any lands which are granted to the Company at a premium of ten per cent meanwhile earning for the holder eight per cent per annum

During the coming year it is anticipated that the Company will have equipped sufficient roads to entitle it to patents from the Government for 3,000,000 acres of land in Minnesota and 500,000 acres in Washington Territory For sale by

A CONFIDENCE MAN.—Saturday evening ...Allen returned from a trip to Marion ...with a prisoner named T. H. D. Loss, who ...charged with obtaining goods under false pre- ...from the tailor store of Wm. Carrier. The ...was followed by one of the late steamers, and hav- ...good address, managed to get into the con- ...several people and borrowed considera- ...sum of money. He got some money at the ...National Bank upon an endorsed check ...has since been protested, as we understand, ...forgery. He pretended to have money com- ...ing, but as none came and things ...began to look uncomfortably mixed, he suddenly ...left and went to Salem. There he got a ...team and went to the country. Mr. Allen ...went and found him near Silverton, and ...came back. He will have a preliminary ...examination to-day before justice S. A. More- ...house.

...RD LUCK.—Everybody, including the ...weather, the "pioneer," the "weather- ...man," etc., down to the last new-comer, has ...at some time or other, since the rain began, ...complaining for a new method of "securing dental ...ease." This method has been heretofore de- ...scribed in our paper.

...ASS TO ANSWER.—On Saturday, a man named ...Cook, was held to answer in the Circuit Court ...on the charge of larceny, in taking his own ...cow from a pasture without paying the charges ...of five dollars. It is a peculiar case.

...FROM WALLA WALLA.—Within the last two or ...three days, nearly a hundred tons of flour and ...about 15,000 pounds of wool, have been received ...at this city from Walla Walla valley.

...U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—There will be a deci- ...sion rendered this morning in this Court in the ...case of Coulter, a bankrupt, on the motion to ex- ...amine proof of debt.

...SAILS.—The Steamer Oriflamme, now on ...the line this port, is advertised to sail for San ...Francisco next Saturday, June 3d.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE NEW YORK CIRCUS.—This company gave in this city three evening performances and a matinee, Saturday afternoon, to audiences from fair to large. Sufficient proof of the favorable estimate of them, formed by the Portland people. The company leaves this morning for the Dalles and Walla Walla.

SKATING.—There was a fashionable and large attendance at the skating rink Saturday evening. Near the close of the evening, a march was introduced with fine effect. The number of people who have learned to skate elegantly or well, must be well up among the hundreds—and still they come.

OPPOSITION SKATING.—We are informed that some parties have leased the Washington Guard Armory, and will shortly open it as a skating rink, using a different pattern from that used by Messrs. Myrick & Dodge. No time is yet mentioned for the opening.

THE PIXLEY TROUPE.—Miss Lizzie Ingles of this troupe, returned from Walla Walla, Saturday, having left the company at Walla Walla on Thursday morning. The others—the Pixley Sisters, Clinton and Campbell—were going to Lewiston, intending to return to Walla Walla and thence to Boise and Salt Lake.

WONDER WHO HE MEANS.

When the Nicolson pavement was first introduced in Portland, a person who owned property on Front street was very active in his opposition to laying that kind of a pavement; talked about injunction, etc. Suddenly, to the astonishment of everyone, he changed his tune. Subsequently some gentlemen of this town wished to purchase the right to the Nicolson pavement in this city. The owner presented his statement to show that it was a valuable franchise; showed how much he had disbursed, and how much he had received for the work done on Front street. Among the disbursements was, say $200, paid to the person who had so suddenly changed his tune. Of such material do we make Assistant Generals. Many years since, in the days of Norton, a merchant of this city, accused his clerk of robbing him. In those days we had but little law, and that of a poor quality, so the matter was left to arbitration. The arbitrators decided that he must give up the watch or refund the money. Of such material do we make School Directors.

A FAVORITE NOTORIETY.—The brief caption and extended use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases has caused the Troches to be extensively imitated. Obtain only the genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not be influenced by those who make more profit by selling worthless imitations.

You Haven't Tried Them.

Victim of debility, who is responsible for your feebleness? Not yourself, you will say, for you've done all you could to cure it. That's a mistake on your part.

You haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Gloomy dyspeptic, with an uneasy stomach and a world weary face, of course you don't think yourself responsible for your own torments. But you are. It's easy to see from your condition that you haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Bilious sufferer, it is not your fault, you think, that your symptoms grow wearisome by day. Blue pill doesn't do you any good. Very likely. But you can be brought round for all that.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

Friend on whom fever and ague alternately blows hot and cold, and whose brain seems to be bursting with the effects of some powerful drug, do you assume the responsibility? O, no! You've taken pills of quinine, and all the regulation medicines. What could you do more? One thing more—the very thing that would have exempted you from all the pangs that now rack you.

You have never tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Nervous invalid, what have you to say? You plead that you have taken all the nervines of the pharmacopœia. If they have done you no good, it is not your fault. You are not responsible. Wrong, all wrong. You have, in reality, nobody to blame but yourself.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

For all the above-named complaints, the Bitters are absolute specifics.

MANUFACTURE

STEAM ENGINES AND

The Old Major [illegible].

BY BRET HARTE.

The following poem was read at the annual meeting of the Army of the Potomac, on the 12th of May:

"Well, you see the fact is, Colonel,
I don't know as I can come,
For the farm is most half planted,
And there is work to do at home;

"And my leg is getting troublesome
It laid me up last fall,
And the doctors they have cut and hacked,
And never found the ball.

"And then, for an old man like me,
It's not exactly right—
The thing of playing soldier with
No enemy in sight.

"The Union, that was well enough
Way up to '66,
But this rebellion, may be, now,
Is mixed with politics.

"Well, you understand it best;
But then, you see, my lad,
I reckon now, and some might think
That my example's bad.

"And, week from next is conference—
I said the 12th of May—
Why, that's the day we broke their line
In Spottsylvania!

"Hi work, eh? Colonel, wasn't it?
Must have known your front?
They rallied 'round the death angle;
Won't, well, my boy, we won't

"Forgot that old battle-cry now;
Only mean to say,
Can't pledge to come
Upon the 12th of May.

"How's Thompson? What, will he be there?
He'll be there, I know,
The first man in the rebel works—
They called him swearing Joe.

"A wild young fellow, sir, I fear,
The rascal was, but then
With that at heaven, there wasn't a place
He hasn't head his men.

"And Dick, you say, is coming, too?
And Bill?—ah, that's true;
Why, I've seen him at Gettysburg—
A fine, brave spirit, do you?

"Ah, hold below the hill—
It will be green this May,
Perhaps—it's why the fields about
Be so dear to me to-day.

"Well, well, excuse me, Colonel,
But there are some things that drop
The cold world out of one's feelings
And the only way's to stop.

"So they want to see the old man,
Ah—do they, eh?
Well I've been down in Boston
About the 14th of May."

REPLY TO MR. DENNISON'S "CARD."

To the Public: Mr. A. P. Dennison having seen fit, in his published card to accuse the committee appointed to examine the accounts of School District No. [illegible] of malfeasance because they discovered certain transactions that do not reflect much credit upon him, and he has published certain statements and made a card of exhibit showing that instead of a deficiency existing, the officers had actually paid out more money than was received, the committee was called upon to place the following report before the community.

Mr. Dennison stated that he could transact his business, sign no order, etc., without the sanction and signature of the [illegible]ague, Gen. Lovejoy; yet the resolution passed by the Board of Directors, which was quoted in the report of the committee, expressly authorized him to issue orders on the Clerk.

Mr. McCoy refused to turn over to his successor—as is usually and correctly done—the warrants paid by him, so that it is impossible to say how far Mr. Dennison availed himself of the liberty given to him. But as one, and only one of the warrants of the previous Board was presented to and paid by Mr. Quackenbush, and that warrant had no other signature but Mr. Dennison's, it is not an unfair presumption that he used his "[illegible]" authority, with an unsparing liberality as he desired, and drew warrants at his own pleasure without any reference to his colleagues, and McCoy's refusal to give them up or show them to his successor, adds color to the presumption.

Mr. Dennison states that "School Directors have no control over the school funds; they merely sign warrants which are cashed by the Clerk, who has charge of the funds and is responsible for the same." But the facts of his administration show that he at least controlled, because he [illegible] the funds, and it is notorious that it was his practice, not the Clerk's—who might, perhaps, be excused for exercising such unusual authority—to go round with money paying warrants and bills, and it is even asserted that the full payment of such warrants and bills was not always paid to the holders. It is certain that the warrants, if any, did not inure to the benefit of the district.

The figures of Mr. Dennison's statement although not given with the assistance of a "competent [illegible]," are taken in premise, deduction and fact.

He starts upon the basis of the sum which McCoy [illegible] him with removing, ignoring the [illegible] of the committee's report that the tax roll gives that McCoy received a considerable sum more than he has stated for. Besides, as McCoy in his report gives all the items of his receipts as follow, below there seems to be no possibility of [illegible] that the $100 which Steppler paid Dennison could have been brought in to the credit of the District.

McCoy states his receipts to have been as follows:

Amount received from L. M. Parrish, [illegible]	$8,860 69
Amount received from delinquent taxes	9 87
Amount received from D. W. Williams Co.	7,674 90
Amount received from [illegible] 11 cents sold at	556 96
Amount collected from District tax roll	10,800 90
Amount received from W. P. Bonell, County Treasurer	4,602 43
Amount received from W. P. Bonell, currency $1 [illegible] 10, sold at 17 cts.	1,173 28
	$37,188 63

McCoy, therefore, does not account for the $100, and as Dennison makes his statement to be correct, therefore [illegible] is that sum accounted for.

But McCoy did receive more than the above amount of money, although he did not get the $100. The tax payers of the District paid himas per previous report, [illegible] $320 88 more than he [illegible] at sheers, and the city gave him back $38 15 as over [illegible] on street improvements. These sums added to the total of his report, make the sum received by him $27,547 62.

Mr. [illegible] states the expenditures, including the cash turned over to Quackenbush, McCoy's successor, to have been $27,297 32. Although these figures are less than the receipts, the committee are unable to discover by what process they are made as large as that.

In the absence of the cancelled warrants the only vouchers for the expenditures of the Board are the bills on file. These have been carefully examined and footed by the committee, and they amount to only $21,856 53. The stubs of the warrant book, however, foot up $23,355 54, of which one warrant of $11 45 was paid by Quackenbush. It could be shown that these warrants were [illegible] for legitimate purposes, and it could be [illegible] until that they were all actually paid, there would still be a deficit, as follows:

Amount received by McCoy, as found by us	$27,547 62
Amount of warrants drawn, less $11 45 paid by Quackenbush	$23,344 08
Amount turned over to Quackenbush	4,053 42
	27,397 50
Deficit	$150 12

But it is clear that these warrants were not all legitimate purposes, as one, at least, for $1,000 75, drawn at the last moment of the year's period of office, was evidently given to cover up deficiencies, and although this sum is so much larger than McCoy was entitled to, there is a shade showing that he had previously been paid [illegible] more. Three warrants were given to Dennison for "incidentals, etc.," amounting to $550, which but $118 25 is actually accounted for.

The loss account should then stand about as follows:

There is actually short, as above, for which no [illegible] and [illegible] voucher can be found	$ 150 12
[illegible] received from Thos. Stephens and does not account for	100 00
Dennison drew $650, and can only account for $118 25, deficit	431 75
Dennison gave McCoy warrants to the amount of $1,731 75. He was actually entitled to only $728 75, and was therefore overpaid	1,003 00
Total	$1,684 87

While this sum represents, as nearly as can be ascertained the amount out of which the district was to some way defrauded.

There is no sort of harmony between the stubs of Dennison's warrant book and McCoy's cash account. They vary at all points, and do not agree even in the totals, as McCoy does not claim in his cash account that as much money was spent as warrants were drawn for, by nearly $200, which would show that while Dennison kept the warrant book drawing to suit his pleasure, McCoy was not [illegible] shrewd enough to keep his book strictly within the lofty flights of the one which Dennison so readily and handsomely manipulated.

Mr. Dennison draws comfort from the fact that because his successors did not charge him with embezzlement, it must be that they did not discover anything wrong.

The committee are authorized to state that his successors did discover irregularities and deficiencies, and that the subject was discussed at a meeting of the Board, but that owing to a doubt existing in their minds as to their authority and duty in the matter no proceedings were had.

With the assistance of consolens restitude Mr. Dennison makes the following statement: "I have been a resident of this city for over twenty-one years, and it is not possible on any grounds that I would tarnish my character in the community among whom I have resided since my boyhood by fraudulently appropriating the paltry sum of $100."

Twenty-one years of residence in one community is certainly a long enough time to establish a man's character for good or evil, and happy should he be of whom, after such a trial, his acquaintance can and do say, that all his ways are honest, just and faithful. Yet it may be safely asserted that out of any given number of those who have known Mr. Dennison longest and best, the most of them would think his above statement vastly improved if the expression "could tarnish" were used instead of "would tarnish," thus consistently altering the character of the sentence and making of it a contrition, the truth of which would be generally recognized.

The committee entertain no "malice" against Mr. Dennison, but they feel—as who does not?—justly indignant over the many evidences of his flagrant violation of what, until his time, had been, and forever should be, regarded as a sacred trust by every person honored with its keeping; and that with these clear indications of his motives before the public, he should so shamelessly assert at the school meeting "that nothing but love for the cause of education and the public schools" had induced him to accept the office of School Director.

But it is wholly unnecessary for Mr. Dennison to attribute to the malice of the committee the unpleasant predicament in which he now finds himself. Facts—the facts of his own making—are his accuser, and they fix upon with terrible certainty the charge of mismanagement in office, and unlawful handling and improper use, if not embezzlement, of the school funds.

CURRENT NOTES.

The soldiers of the Northwest are to have a reunion in Rock Island, Illinois, on the 7th of June. Gen. John A. Logan will deliver an oration, and Gens. Oglesby, Palmer, Lathrop, Whitney, White, and others will be present.

A Council Bluffs dispatch of May 20th says: Robert Bonner of the New York Ledger has accepted a challenge from ex-Governor Leland Stanford, President of the Central Pacific Railroad owner of the California horse, for a trot in this city in June next for a purse of $50,000. A great many of the fast horses of the country are expected to be here.

By the full census returns it appears that the total colored population of the United States and Territories in 1870 was 4,857,696, against 33,690,534 whites—a little more than one colored to seven whites. The total colored population in 1860 was 4,126,065; increase in ten years, 429,935, or about 9½ per cent. The increase of whites for the same period of time was about 25 per cent., whereof about one-sixth was from foreign immigration, there being no colored increase from that source.

A Connecticut school boy has written a composition on the horse, in which he says it is an animal having four legs, "one at each corner."
